Requests for tuition reimbursement must be made in writing to the school's president.

Financial Obligations

The satisfaction of all financial obligations to the school, including the payment of tuition and fees, constitutes a material condition for continued enrollment. The school may disallow students from taking quarterly, semester, or final examinations if the parents or legal guardians fail to meet any financial obligation to the school. In addition, the school may withhold the issuance of transcripts or any other student record and/or disallow participation in or access to school activities, and/or disenroll a student if any financial obligations are not met.
